

Your employees need to move to work, not work to move.

UrbanBound is relocation technology platform that is a user-friendly, state-of-the-art web-based software that provides end-to-end relocation support for your employees.

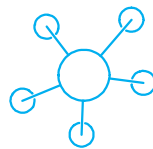

Moving is difficult; your employees shouldn't have to do it alone.

The UrbanBound Platform

Everything from local content to quick expense payouts.

Vetted Supply Network

Spare your employee the headache of locating and managing non-vetted suppliers.

Relocation Support Team

Available to support employees and answer questions about their move.

My overall experience with UrbanBound was great! The site was easy to navigate and my representative was very prompt in responding back and thorough in explaining everything to me. Would highly recommend this service and would love to use it again.
